Course Description

Students will work one-on-one with our Rising Stars students in either PE or Art elective. Our Rising Stars are students with intellectual disabilities who are paired with a “buddy”. Buddies assist our Rising Stars in meeting the Middle School PE and/or Art standards; i.e. drawing, painting, playing games, etc. and provide support for social /emotional growth through participation in an inclusive classroom. Students must be responsible, self-motivated, and show compassion to students with disabilities. This class meets the requirement for Middle School Physical Education.

1. After reading the course description above, why do you feel you would be a good fit for the Rising Stars Buddies program at Central Middle School? _____

2. Do you have any experience working with individuals with disabilities? _____
