Describe the culture of Merritt Island High:

The culture of Merritt Island high school is one that focuses on pursuing avenues on campus that students are passionate about and working to achieve excellence. The MIHS faculty and staff created a classroom culture in which students are encouraged to take academic risks with the support of their teachers. We have a wide variety of athletic teams that value teamwork, determination, and grit. MIHS extracurricular activities range from academic honor groups to individual interest clubs. overall, the MIHS culture is about identifying opportunities and striving for excellence.
