

Hello Cocoa Beach Families,

We hope that you had an enjoyable Thanksgiving break. The students were full of energy yesterday, so they seemed well rested. We have a full week this week, including a full day Friday (dismissal at 3:30 pm).

National Humanitarian Award: I mentioned a few times that one of our own, Ralph Maccarone, was up for a special award for his work with "Who We Play For." He won! Congratulations to Ralph and WWPF! Thank you to everyone who voted for Ralph! Here is a link: <https://www.floridatoday.com/story/news/local/2022/11/18/nascar-foundation-honors-brevard-nonprofit-who-we-play-for-heart-screenings-student-athletes/10718759002/>

Semester Exams: We have not received word that there will be any changes to the dates for semester exams. We believe they will still be Dec, 16, 19, 20, and 21. All of these will be early release days. We will send the detailed Bell Schedule next week. Here is a summary:

- Friday, December 16th: All 6 classes (short) followed by 7th Period Exam
- Monday, December 19th: 1st Period Exam and 4th Period Exam
- Tuesday, December 20th: 2nd Period Exam and 5th Period Exam
- Wednesday, December 21st: 3rd Period Exam and 6th Period Exam

Minutemen Messenger: The latest edition of our quarterly newsletter is out. Here is a link to the online version: <https://issuu.com/academypublishing/docs/cocoabeachjrsrhs?fr=sM2QyYjU3OTA>

Thank you for choosing Cocoa Beach. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact me.

Mark J. Rendell
rendell.mark@brevardschools.org