Title I News

Parent Resource Room

The Parent Resource Room is a collection of academic resources and games focusing on both math and reading. The resource area is available for parents to check-out for use at home! Simply stop in the front office and ask for access to the Title I parent resources, or contact Tammy Culp at culp.tammy@brevardschools.org to schedule an appointment.

New Student Gradebook

Brevard Public Schools has purchased a new online gradebook program entitled FOCUS. All teachers have switched over to the new FOCUS gradebook program. Parent activation codes were sent home with student interim reports. If your family did not receive your activation code, or you need assistance with activating your account, please contact Tammy Culp at (321) 676-4237 ext 49021 or email: culp.tammy@brevardschools.org

International Dinner!

Thursday, November 15th is our annual International Dinner and Art Show. All families are invited to share a special meal to celebrate the cultural diversity of our Riviera families. This spectacular event will begin at 5:30pm and end at 7:30pm.

Puerto Rican Day Parade

On Sunday, November 4th at 2:00pm, Riviera's Dance Team will be marching in the 22nd Annual Puerto Rican Day Parade. Riviera staff and students are also invited to march in the oldest Puerto Rican Day Parade in the State of Florida! The parade will begin at Eldron & Malabar Roads, heading west and ending at Palm Bay City Hall.
