Title I News

School Public Accountability Report

The School Public Accountability Report also known as SPAR for the 2016-2017 school year is now available. It can be accessed by going to our new school website and clicking on the link. It is also available in the parent resource room located in the front office. Copies and translations are available upon request.

New Student Gradebook

Brevard Public Schools has purchased a new online gradebook program entitled FOCUS. On October 15th all teachers will switch over to the new FOCUS gradebook program.

Parent activation codes were sent home with student interim reports. If your family did not receive your activation code, or you need assistance with activating your account, please contact Tammy Culp at (321) 676-4237 ext 49021 or email: culp.tammy@brevardschools.org

National Walk to School Day!

Wednesday, October 10th is national Walk & Bike to School Day. The teachers and staff at Riviera would like to invite all Riviera families to meet us at the park on Riviera Drive at 7:00am so we can join children and adults around the world to celebrate the benefits of walking by walking to school together!

Harvest Night

Riviera is holding its 1st Annual Harvest Night on October 12th. The fun will begin at 5:00pm and end at 7:00pm. All families are invited to join us for a fun filled evening. A flyer with more information will be coming home soon.
