- The Department of Leading and Learning recently completed Round 1 of the ELA Instructional Materials review for upcoming textbook adoption. During Round 1, dedicated teams of educators and community members participated in digital presentations from companies that submitted course-appropriate materials for review. The district is seeking additional input from staff and the community. Please use the link below to access the instructions for review as well as links to the feedback surveys. Results from these surveys will be used in making recommendations to the School Board.
