

South Brevard Branch of NAACP Presents...

The Black Family:

Parental Engagement in Education of Children

Virtual Panel Discussion

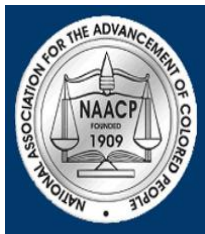

Date: Wednesday, February 17, 2021

Time: 6:30 PM

Moderator: Thelma Bryan, ACT-SO Chm

Join the South Brevard National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), in collaboration with the Central and North NAACP Branches, as we celebrate Black History Month and focus on the importance of the Black Family and education. This panel discussion will serve to highlight the value of parental engagement in the education of our youth. Brevard Public Schools Family Engagement Team and the Director of Equity and Diversity will join the conversation and provide an informative presentation. This event is open to the public and all are encouraged to attend.

ZOOM Information: Meeting ID: 459 345 5078 ----Passcode: 650012

James Minus
President SBB NAACP

Please Join us!