Literacy Limelight by Tehani Kisor

As we begin the new school year, we hope you will continue reading nightly with your child. We would like to share a few tips for reading success:

Time for a story:
Want to spend time with your youngster, build his/her reading skills, and help them learn to love books? You can do all three when you read aloud! We are sharing some suggestions:

Read Regularly
Try to read to your child every day. 1. You might aim for 10-15 minutes of bedtime reading for a peaceful end to the day. 2. Bring along a book, and read to them during a sibling’s sports practice. 3. Or curl up together with a book when you get home from work.

Take turns choosing books
Your youngster may want to hear old favorites again and again. Use your turn for new titles and variety (nonfiction or poetry)

Let them participate
Ask your child to turn the pages while you read. Also, they can finish sentences that rhyme or fill in words they know. Go slowly so they have time to understand the story and look at the illustrations. They will enjoy read-aloud time more if they play an active role.

Be Playful
You can use different voices for different characters (a high squeaky voice for a mouse or a deep booming voice for a horse). Or substitute your youngster’s name for the main character’s name, and use family members’ names for other characters.

You don’t have to be an expert reader – your child will love it when you read aloud because it is YOU 🖤

Books Suggestions:
- Dragons Love Tacos by Adam Rubin Pre-K – 2
- Just a Second by Steve Jenkins Pre-K – 3
- Bedtime is Cancelled by Cece Meng Pre-K – 3
- The One and Only Ivan by Katherine Applegate 4th – 6th
- No Talking by Andrew Clements 4th – 6th

POWER Trait for the month of October is “Winning Attitude”

How to help your child develop a winning attitude:

- Share positive experiences with your child and model a positive attitude.
- Encourage your child to come up with positive affirmations.
- Encourage your child to develop his/her strengths and try new activities.
- Assist your child in setting goals, recognize and celebrate hard work and effort.
- Be the example you want your child to follow: model how to adjust to change.
