

Brevard Public Schools
Office of Title I
2021-2022 Parent and Family Engagement Plan (PFEP)

Each Title I school shall jointly develop with parents and family members of participating children, a written plan that shall describe how the school will carry out the requirements mentioned below. Parents shall be notified of the plan in an understandable and uniform format and, to the extent practical, provided in a language the parents can understand. The school plan must be made available to the local community and updated and agreed upon by parents periodically to meet the changing needs of parents and the school.

All families and community members were invited and encouraged to provide input and suggestions on developing/reviewing this plan. This plan is available on our school website and in the Title I parent and family engagement notebook located in our front office. If you would like a printed copy of this document, or require translation, please contact our Title I Contact Kristi Shorts at 321-723-2566 X52681 or shorts.kristin@brevardschools.org

Se invitó y alentó a todas las familias y miembros de la comunidad a proporcionar aportes y sugerencias sobre el desarrollo / revisión de este plan. Este plan está disponible en el sitio web de nuestra escuela y en el cuaderno de participación de padres y familias del Título I ubicada en nuestra oficina principal. Si desea una copia impresa de este documento o necesita una traducción, comuníquese con nuestro contacto de Título I, Kristi Shorts at 321-723-2566 X52681 or shorts.kristin@brevardschools.org

School's vision for engaging families: Staff and Parents working together to ensure all students are making a year's worth of earning gains in a year's worth of time.

Assurances

- We will:
- Involve an adequate representation of parents, or establish a parent advisory board to represent families, in developing and evaluating the "School Parent and Family Engagement Plan" that describes how the school will carry out its required family engagement activities.
 - Hold an annual meeting for families to explain the Title I program and the rights of parents to be involved. Offer other meetings/workshops at flexible times.
 - Use a portion of Title I funds to support parent and family engagement and involve parents in deciding how these funds are to be used.
 - Involve parents in the planning, review, and improvement of the Title I program.
 - Develop a school-parent compact that outlines how parents, students, and school staff will share the responsibility for improving student achievement, and describes how parents and teachers will communicate.
 - Offer assistance to parents in understanding the education system and the state standards, and how to support their children's achievement.
 - Provide materials and training to help parents support their child's learning at home.
 - Provide staff development to educate teachers and other school staff, including school leaders, on how to engage families effectively.
 - Coordinate with other federal and state programs, including preschool programs.
 - Provide information in a format and language parents can understand, and offer information in other languages as feasible.
 - Include the School and District Parent and Family Engagement Plans on our school website and in the Parent Engagement Notebook in the front office.

All Title I schools are required to hold at least one face-to-face conference in which the compact is discussed with families.*

2. Hold an annual meeting for families to explain the Title I program and the rights of parents and families to be involved.

Tentative date & time(s) of meeting	8/19/21 5:00 PM via Zoom
How are families notified of the meeting?	Flyer in backpack, Facebook, Peach Jar, Marquee, Robo Call / Text
What information is provided at the meeting?	The Office of Title I provides each school with a Power Point Presentation and feedback form that incorporates information on: The Title I Program, Use of Funds Overview, Curriculum and Assessment Information, Parent and Family Engagement Plan, Compact, Ways Parents Can Be Involved. Schools may personalize the Power Point by elaborating on how their Title I funds are used to increase student achievement and promote parent and family engagement, ways parents can be involved at their school, how to access staff, school grade information, parent survey results and information on the school's curriculum.
How are parents and families informed of their rights?	Brevard Public Schools Office of Title I provides all Title I schools with a brochure informing parents of their rights. This brochure is sent home with all students via backpack. Schools are also required to have a copy of the "Parents Right To Know" letter in a parent and family engagement notebook kept in the front office. The district Title I office monitors and keeps documentation of this on file.
What barriers will you address to encourage parents/families to attend?	The first barrier is the continued need for social distancing. We will continue to hold our events on Zoom until it is safe to return to in-person activities. The second barrier is being able to connect with all families. Multiple forms of communication will be used and times for events will vary.

2021-2022 Parent and Family Engagement Plan (PFEP)

How will you get feedback from parents and families about the meeting?	A google form will be used following each event to get feedback from parents and families. Parents were given contact information for the Title 1 coordinator and were encouraged to reach out to her with any questions or concerns.
How do parents and families who are not able to attend receive information from the meeting?	A recording of the Zoom meetings will be available upon request to anyone that was unable to attend.

Identify partnerships that coordinate & integrate Title I and local/federal funds to provide opportunities that encourage and support parents and families in more fully participating in the education of their children and/or to help support learning at home.

Title II- Professional Development	Professional development opportunities will be provided by the district. Additional professional development will be offered by the Title 1 contact and Teacher leaders. This will be to support the needs of staff related to parental involvement and working with parents. Ongoing training is being done to support the use of technology to communicate with families. This includes Focus, Google Classroom and other platforms being used.
Title III-ESOL	The University Park Elementary ESOL teacher and assistant will encourage and support families to participate in school events. They will assist in translating documents and communicating with parents. The ESOL teacher and/or assistant will attend all events to provide translation when requested.
Title IV-Well-Rounded Education/School Safety/Educational Technology	Focus will be used to communicate grades and important information to all families. Ongoing training continues on the use of online platforms for families and teachers.
Title IX-Homeless	University Park's social worker and staff will communicate and assist families in transition with appropriate resources and assistance opportunities.
FDLRS/ESE services	University Park teachers including ESE teachers and MTSS facilitator will encourage and support parents of children with an IEP. We will make phone calls and send flyers and newsletters. Supplemental instructional support provided by the Title 1 team will be discussed with the parents during the development of the child's IEP. Teachers and parents of students with exceptionalities will have access to FDLRS for diagnostic and instructional support services.
Preschool Programs (Head Start/VPK)	University Park has expanded the school program by adding multiple Head Start units for three & four year olds. The Head Start program provides comprehensive child development services to predominantly economically disadvantaged children and families. Head Start has a special focus on helping pre-school children develop early reading and math skills. Head Start promotes school readiness by enhancing the social, cognitive and emotional development of pre-school children. This is done through the provision of educational health, nutritional, social and other services to enroll students and families.
SAC	University park encourages parents, teachers and community members to become involved in planning, review and improvement of our programs. Participation in our SAC is essential to our continued improvement. SAC meetings are held monthly and faculty, staff, parents and community members are invited through e-mail, newsletter, marquee and Facebook. Agendas and minutes are available upon request. Our SAC committee is representative of our school population.

2021-2022 Parent and Family Engagement Plan (PFEP)

PTO/PTA	University Park does not currently have this form of parent participation.
Community Agencies/Business Partners	University Park attends business partner meetings through the business partner liaison. The community will be invited to attend events and programs hosted by University Park. The community members are also invited to attend SAC meetings.

3. Utilize strategies to ensure meaningful communication and accessibility.

Describe the methods that will be used to ensure meaningful, ongoing communication between home, school and community.	University Park teachers, including Title 1 teachers will encourage and support parents and community members to attend school events. We will send information by the way of invitation, Facebook, Newsletters and e-mails.
Describe how you notify each family in a timely manner when their child has been assigned, or has been taught for four or more consecutive weeks, by a teacher who is out of field.	Letters are sent home with every student that has been taught for four or more consecutive weeks by a teacher who is out of field. A copy of the letter and a list of the parents who receive the letter is kept on file as documentation for auditing purposes.
Explain how families are provided information regarding the curriculum, achievement levels, progress monitoring and assessments.	Information about academic curricula, Florida Standards and academic assessments used to measure student performance will be shared with parents and community members at the Title 1 Annual Night, during parent conferences, on the website, grade level curriculum nights and at any time by parent request.
Describe how your school provides information to families in their native language. What languages do you provide?	Flyers are translated and translation during events is provided upon request. We provide translation in Spanish & Haitian Creole.
How are the needs of families with disabilities accommodated to ensure they have access to meetings, workshops, and/or events?	At University Park, parents and students with disabilities are provided accommodations in a timely manner and to the extent possible. Alternative formats will be provided at the request of a person with a disability as needed.
Describe the opportunities families have to participate in their child's education.	We encourage and support parents and community members to attend events at University Park. We offer monthly family engagement nights. These events allow the parents to gain a better understanding of the curriculum being taught and how to better assist their children. Currently our engagement nights are virtual due to Covid.
Describe how your school shares the PFEP, SWP, CNA and other Title I documents with community members.	University Park SAC members are asked to provide meaningful input into the development of all plans related to school improvement. The SAC members also provide input into the development, implementation and evaluation of the following: The School-Wide Improvement Plan, The Title 1 Parent and Family Engagement Plan, the Title 1 teacher-parent-student Compact, the Title 1 Annual Needs Assessment Survey and Title 1 parent involvement funds. The finalized documents are then shared with families and community members.

How will workshops/events for families be evaluated to determine return on investment?	Families and community members are asked to complete an exit ticket at the end of each event. All stakeholders will be asked to complete a survey in the spring of 2022 to evaluate the Title 1 program.
How will the needs of families be assessed to plan future events?	Families and community members are asked to complete an exit ticket at the end of each event. All stakeholders will be asked to complete a survey in the spring of 2022 to evaluate the Title 1 program. The information obtained from these surveys are used to plan future events.
What are the barriers for parents and families to attend workshops/events and how do you overcome these? (transportation, translation, etc)	One barrier for families is having events that they are able to attend. Having our events via Zoom has increased participation. Once the restrictions are lifted, we will continue to allow families to join events via Zoom, as well as in person.

How are flexible dates and times for meetings, events and/or workshops offered? (Give examples)	At University Park, we understand the importance of parental involvement and therefore offer a variety of activities at various times to allow more parents to attend. Teachers and administrators are also available before, during and after school based on the need of the family. Virtual events also allow us to share the video recording of the events upon request.
How do families who are unable to attend building capacity events receive information from the meetings?	University Park faculty and staff encourage parents to reach out when they cannot attend an event. Currently, video recordings of our meetings are available upon request. Parents may also request any materials provided at the events.
What strategies were used to increase family and community engagement in decision-making?	Following each event, all attendees complete an exit ticket. The information collected from each of these events is used in planning future events. We also make sure to provide different events at different times of day to ensure that all families have a chance to provide feedback.
