

What is Faith Explorers? A on campus, after school club that has games, skits, activities, prayer and more. It doesn't matter what church you go to, this program is to celebrate a non-denominational faith and to be a blessing to your family.

Meetings are 2nd Thursday of every month.
Open to 3rd through 6th grade
Located in Room 123

Due to limited space, we will only be able to accept the first 40 registrations. Pick up time is at 3:30. A local children's minister supports the program and it's curriculum and all questions can be directed to:
Tricia Bynum, Grace Fellowship Church, 321-636-3051

Complete and return to Jeaniey Geremia in the front office

Pick Up: (Circle ONE) Car Rider Brevard After School

I give my child permission to attend Faith Explorers, and fully understand that this is a faith based program that is not, in any way affiliated with Brevard Public Schools. I understand that participation in the program is voluntary and that the students who participate will be held to a high standard of commitment, good behavior and overall quality character practices. I further understand that demonstration of character not meeting these standards, excessive absences or late pick up may result in being removed from the program after parent notification.
