Media News

October will be a very fun month! Thank you to everyone who is supporting our Fall Book Fair! All the profits will benefit our Media Center!

The Library pumpkins are back! This year we will have our third annual 'Viera Elementary Pumpkin Patch.' Be on the lookout for an orange flyer coming home with information on how you can decorate a pumpkin as a book character. This year we are only accepting artificial pumpkins. Pumpkins can come to the Media Center now until October 31st. On October 31st, all pumpkins will be sent home with students. Check out the pumpkin patch videos from the last two years below for some inspiration!

We love volunteers in the Media Center! If you are free on Friday morning from drop-off until 8:25, we could use your help shelving library books. Please email Mrs. Romano (romano.shana@brevardschools.org) for more details. There is a Media volunteer email list for this school year that Mrs. Romano would love to add you to!

Don't forget about the optional SSYRA reading program! Students in 3rd-6th grade have been challenged to read the 15 Sunshine State Young Reader Award (SSYRA) books. Students that read the most books will be invited to attend SLAM, a fun filled day where we compete against neighboring schools with trivia, challenges, and games based on the books. This program is completely optional and not required.

Disguise-a-Pumpkin

Due

ONLY artificial pumpkins this year. Pumpkins can come to the Media Center anytime until October 31!

Bring your pumpkin to life! Disguise a pumpkin to look like a character from a book you love!

What: Viera Elementary Media Center is getting into the fall spirit by having an optional pumpkin decorating challenge!

How: *Only artificial pumpkins this year

*Pumpkins need to be based on a book character

*Be creative!

*You can decorate your pumpkin with paint, markers, cloth, glue, construction paper, or whatever you need to embellish your pumpkin.

When: Turn in your finished project to the Media Center. All pumpkins will go back home on October 31. Email Mrs. Romano with any questions.

Kindergarten Book Character Parade

Friday, October 28th

Kindergarten students are invited (and encouraged) to join in the fun and dress up as a book character to celebrate literacy. Choose a character from a story you enjoy and bring the book in to school for the parade! No weapons or scary costumes, please.
