Community and School

Satellite High School, located in Satellite Beach, sits on the east coast of central Florida. This beachside community consists of approximately 11,000 residents. The school serves Satellite Beach, Indian Harbour Beach, Patrick Space Force Base, the southern tip of Merritt Island, and the unincorporated area of South Patrick Shores. Satellite HS is one of the 17 comprehensive senior high schools in Brevard County. Nationally, Brevard Public Schools is the 66th largest district and recognized as a state and national leader in academic excellence. Brevard County is the tenth largest county in population in the state. Our community continues to grow due to Kennedy Space Center, Port Canaveral, Patrick Space Force Base, and numerous electronic and other high technology industries in the area.

Satellite High School (SHS) opened in the Fall of 1962 and graduated its first senior class in the Spring of 1963. Accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, Satellite High School is one of the most outstanding high schools in Brevard County. SHS houses grades nine through twelve and has a population of 1,547, consisting of 380 freshmen, 402 sophomores, 411 juniors, and 321 seniors. The Free and Reduced lunch rate is 18.06%.
